Candace is providing the staff conference meal of lasagna, garlic bread and salad on November 11th. Volunteers will be there at 2:45 to set up and again at 4:00 to clean up.

Mark Donlin, chaplain for the Parent Council, would like parents to let him know what their best practices are for engaging their child/children in their spiritual development. He is trying to gather some great ideas of what parents do that have helped in this area. Email Sarah Jane Nicoll or Kelly Anderson with your practices. They will forward them to Mark.

Staff treats for November are provided by the 11th grade. Ian Pfeiffer is leading this. 12th grade provided staff treats on October 12th. They served pie.

The Parent Council is still looking for a Volunteer Coordinator.

Sarah Jane Nicoll is still looking into getting speakers for January - April meetings. She has sent an inquiry to Craig and Molly Sanborn and has briefly reached out to Kelly Sayre to see if she has information on online/social media safety. Alternatively, if anyone knows of a speaker that is well versed in this area please let Sarah Jane know. She has made contact with Donniel Robinson regarding mental health, anxiety and trauma. Other speakers she has contacted are Willow Sweeney-Flaherty and Revecca Cleuver. John Palmer suggested a parent education workshop to learn how to navigate the PowerSchool and Schoology software programs. Kathy Crispo thought this would be a good idea to offer this in August before the school year starts. Andrea Joplin mentioned providing the students and parents with more information on bullying.

Telephone directories are done and will be delivered October 12th, 2021. 250 directories were ordered, with 25 extra for any one who wants to purchase one. We had 21 advertisers in the telephone directory. Last year we had 19.
